----------	------------	---

Summary: On November 10, 2004, Eric Eisenman, Chief, Regulatory Relations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), met with Julie Fitch, advisor to Cmmr. Peevey, in San Francisco. Also present was David Rubin, Director of Service Analysis of PG&E. Written material (attached to the notice) was used.

Eisenman reiterated PG&E's position that no exemptions from the cost responsibility surcharge (CRS) should be granted to municipal departing load. Eisenman stated that PG&E believes Cmmr. Lynch's alternate decision is the best proposal before Commission. Rubin stated that the proposed decision and Cmmr. Peevey's alternate should be modified to correct the exemption cap amounts. Rubin explained that PG&E accepts the CRS exemptions are to be granted in situations where a city like Redding, Roseville, and Lodi annexes an area where it is expanding, and providing all city services, including electric service.

Summary: On November 10, 2004, Eric Eisenman, Chief, Regulatory Relations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), met with David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Peevey, in San Francisco. Also present was David Rubin, Director of Service Analysis of PG&E. Eisenman reiterated PG&E's position that no exemptions from the cost responsibility surcharge (CRS) should be granted to municipal departing load. Eisenman stated that PG&E believes Cmmr. Lynch's alternate decision is the best proposal before Commission. Rubin reiterated that the proposed decision should be modified to correct the exemption cap amounts. Rubin added that the only charge subject to the exemption is the Department of Water Resources power charge.

Summary: On November 12, 2004, Jane Dunn Cirrincione, Assistant General Manager, Legislative and Regulatory Affairs of the Northern California Power Agency (NCPA), met with Cmmr. Lynch and Manuel Ramirez, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, in two separate meetings in San Francisco. At the meeting with Cmmr. Lynch also present was Mike Campbell, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch. Robert Hedrick, Regulatory Counsel, Tom Sanford, Commissioner for the City of Gridley, and Susie Berlin, counsel, for NCPA, participated in both meetings. Cirrincione explained that unwarranted exit fees on new municipal load (NML) could severely impact several smaller NCPA members and urged the Commission to support the exemption for NML articulated in the alternate of Pres. Peevey. Sanford summarized how the exit fee would impact the City of Gridley and explained why the conclusions set for the in the alternate were reasonable in light of the record. Representatives of NCPA urged the Commission to support the MLD exclusion from the CRS and to remove the 150 MW cap from the exclusion for publicly owned utilities formed and serving customers prior to February 1, 2001.

Summary: On November 12, 2004, Steve Boyd, Manager of Communications and Government Relations Department of Turlock Irrigation District (Turlock), met with Cmmr. Lynch and Manuel Ramirez, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, in two separate meetings in San Francisco. At the meeting with Cmmr. Lynch also present was Michael Campbell, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch. Susie Berlin, counsel for Turlock, participated in both meetings. Boyd gave a brief history of the unique contractual relationship between Turlock and Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E). Boyd also noted that Turlock is unique in that it is the only publicly owned utility that is currently being billed for the CRS by PG&E. Turlock urged the Commission to support the alternate decision of Cmmr. Peevey, as the exemption for new municipal load is fully supported by the record. Turlock pointed out, however, that the alternate should be revised to reflect that the 150 MW cap should not apply to load associated with publicly owned utilities formed and serving retail load prior to February 1, 2001. Turlock also explained that it is not responsible for payment of PG&E's regulatory asset refinance.

SCWC expressed the view that the allocation ordered in that decision was improper and contrary to Commission precedent and policy. SCWC presented its view that the allocation of past revenues as ordered in D04-03-039 should be reexamined in this proceeding and asked the Commission to consider adding the allocation of past lease revenues as an issue within the scope of this proceeding.

was used. Cherry stressed the importance of incorporating PG&E's comments into the Energy Recovery Bonds (ERBs) draft decision to ensure that the ERB bonds could be issued on a timely basis and without problems. Cherry discussed the importance of ensuring appropriate tax recovery, that the final decision clarify that a Special Purpose Entity and not PG&E would be issuer of the ERBs, and that it was important to have an appropriate true-up mechanism in place to ensure repayment of the ERBs by the final legal maturity date.

11/18/04	A04-03-023	California-American Water Company for an order authorizing it to change its rates for water service in its Coronado District to increase revenues by $352.9 or 2.86% in the year 2005, to decrease revenues by $ 43.1 or 0.34% in 2006, and to decrease revenues by $28.4 or 0.22% in 2007.
	A04-03-024	California-American Water Company for an order authorizing it to change its rates for water service in its Village District to decrease revenues by $1,254.0 or 6.36% in the year 2005, to decrease revenue by $24.9 or 0.13% in 2006, and to increase revenues by $4.7 or 0.03% in 2007.

Summary: On November 15, 2004, Monica McCrary, Counsel for the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA), had a telephone conversation with ALJ McKenzie. McCrary stated that it was her understanding that the rate decrease agreed to in the settlement between ORA and California-American Water Company (Cal-Am) for the Village District should take effect on January 1, 2005, but that all rate increases agreed to for both the Village and Coronado districts should be deferred by one year pursuant to D02-12-068, the decision approving the transfer of control of Cal-Am's corporate parent. McCrary also stated that ORA's statement at paragraph 1.7 of its report for the Village District recommending that Cal-Am adjust its tariff only once in 2005 did not consider the requirements of D02-12-068.

Summary: On November 15, 2004, Anita Taff-Rice, attorney for MCI, Inc., met with Tim Sullivan, advisor to Cmmr. Kennedy, in San Francisco. Written materials (attached to the notice) were used. Taff-Rice explained that improved hot cut processes are critical to the success of mass market local telephone competition and to avoid potential problems for consumers. Taff-Rice also stated that the Commission has the authority to resolve hot cut issues. Taff-Rice noted that it is extremely important for the Commission to move ahead expeditiously to adopt the proposed decision to ensure that an efficient, seamless and economic batch hot cut process is in place to handle high volumes of hot cuts that will occur if the Federal Communications Commission issues an order phasing out the availability of UNE-P. Taff Rice explained that it is essential that the batch hot cut process adopted by the Commission include the full range of customer migration scenarios. Taff-Rice also compared the hot cut provisioning intervals proposed by SBC and Verizon and explained that both proposals are too lengthy, but that Verizon's proposal is completely unworkable to meet customer needs. Taff-Rice discussed the batch hot cut order issued by the New York Public Service Commission, and stated that it would not be helpful to look to the New York order for guidance.

Harrelson and Taff-Rice emphasized that it is extremely important for the Commission to move ahead expeditiously to adopt the proposed decision to ensure that an efficient, seamless and economic batch hot cut process is in place to handle high volumes of hot cuts that will occur if the CLECs need to move all of their customers from ILEC switches to their own switches. The MCI representatives discussed the batch hot cut order issued by the New York Public Service Commission, and explained that it would not be helpful to look to the New York order for guidance for either Verizon or SBC.
